Hannah Collins Clerk for the Day.

Abraham Breed of Lynn in the County of Essex & State of Massachusetts. Having gone under the denomination of a Quaker; and reputed as such: and had by birth a right of membership among Friends, But by not adhering to the Dictates of Truth, he hath for a long time been in the practice of drinking Spirituous liquors to excess: and behaved in an unbecoming, and sometimes, in an outrageous manner to the distress of his Family, and the disturbance of the Neighbourhood, for which his disorderly conduct he hath been much laboured with, and at times shewed some signs of Contrition for his outgoings, but still Continuing at times, his said disorderly Practices: We feel ourselves Constrained Publickly to testify against his said Conduct, and deny his standing a member of our Society until he shall come to a sight and sense of his outgoings, and manifest by an amendment of Life his sincere sorrow therefor and make Satisfaction to Friends for the same; which that he may be favoured to do is our desire for him Given forth at a Monthly Meeting of Friends held at Lynn for Salem the 9th of the 2d Mo. 1797 and Signed on behalf thereof. Whereas Nicajah Alley of Lynn, hath gone under the denomination of a Quaker, and had by birth a Right of membership among Friends, but by not adhering to the dictates of Truth in his own mind, it doth appear that he hath so far given way to an unchaste desire as to be Guilty of the Heinous Sin of Adultery, To his own Confusion, the great distress of his Wife, and affliction of their Connexions, and painful burthen of Society, as well as great reproach of the profession he was making to the world.
And although there doth appear in him some Signs of Contrition, yet We do believe, that a Transgression of so deep a dye, doth require a time of probation, to prove that true repentance and Contrition of Soul that is requisite thereon — We do therefore find ourselves Constrained for the Clearing the Truth of the reproach brought thereon by his said Transgression hereby publickly to testify against it, and do deny unity and Church fellowship with him, not Considering him any longer a member of our Society, until he Shall by repentance & amendment of Life manifested by his Consistent walking, make satisfaction for his outgoings, which that he may be favoured to do is our sincere desire for him ——

43 Whereas Jedediah Purrinton of Lynn in the County of Essex & State of Massachusetts hath gone under the Denomination of a Quaker, and had by birth a right of Membership among us, But by not adhering to the Dictates of Truth in his own mind he hath for a long time been in the pernicious practice of drinking Spirituous liquors to excess, to the great grief of his Family and Friends, and reproach to the Truth of which We are making profession; Notwithstanding he hath been much laboured with to dissuade him from his said disorderly walking, he still persists therein and doth not shew any sign of Contrition for his outgoings, We are therefore for the Clearing of the Truth from the reproach brought thereon by such disorderly conduct Constrained to Testify against him and his said Practice, and deny him of membership with us, and shall not hereafter hold Society accountable for his future Conduct, unless he shall return and repent of his outgoings, and by a more orderly life make satisfaction therefor, which that he may be favoured to do, is our sincere desire for him,

Whereas Benjamin Alley of Lynn in the County of Essex and State of Massachusetts had a Birthright in the Society of Friends and has been considered a member of this Meeting, But hath so far deviated from the dictates of Truth, and principles held forth by said Society, That he hath engaged in Business beyond his ability to manage in the Truth, Obtained credit by promises which he hath not fulfilld, Involved himself in debts but a small part of which he is able to discharge, and after being declared a Bankrupt, and laying himself under obligations to deliver up the whole of his effects agreable to the requisitions of said act of Bankruptcy, he did by fraud withhold a part, By which conduct he hath brought on himself Shame & disgrace, wounded the Reputation of Society, and caused painful sensations to his Friends, We therefore for the Clearing the Truth ~~from~~ and the Society from any further reproach brought on them by his said Conduct, Have disowned him from Membership with us, not Considering him any longer a member of our Society nor ourselves accountable for his future Conduct, until he shew a sense of his errors and sincere sorrow & repentance therefor manifested by a Course of Life very reverse from what it has been, which that it may be his happy case is our desire for him. ——

Our Society but their deviations from the principles Of Our profession hath called for its Labours in Order for their Reformation inasmuch as the Father hath so far disregarded the Order thereof as for a long time past to neglect the due attendance of Our Religious Meetings Nor hath he conducted consistent with Our Principles with regard to Military Matters having so far deviated therefrom as to pay a Fine for his Son nor hath his Sons above named conduct Consistent with Our profession in this respect they have also manifested a very general Neglect In the attendance of Our Religious Meetings For all which they have been repeatedly laboured with without the desired effect As they do not seem dispos to be so far Restricted by Our principles as to walk conformably to the Order of Our Society in these respects We therefore feel Ourselves under the Necessity Of Denying them a Right of Membership with Us not considering Ourselves as a Society accountable for their future conduct untill they shall from a Sight and sense of their deficiency make satisfaction by a more circumspect & consistent conduct Which that they may is Our sincere desire

Whereas a Complaint was laid before the Grand Jury in the 4th Month last year against, John Shaw, John Libby Jr., James Nowhall, and others. At which time I went before said Jury a Voluntary witness in favour of the Complaint, and have no doubt my testimony contributed to the cause of said Jury's Indicting them. But I did not at that time, fully understand the nature of the business, nor foresee the consequences that might and since have arisen, nor did I afterward see any way to retract or suspend the effects of what had been done. But I now see that my proceedure was hasty inconsiderate and wrong, and I am very sorry, that I went before the S.d Jury, as there was no just cause for my so doing, and I wish the Meeting, and particularly such as have felt themselves injured, to pass it by. Hoping that in all concerns of moment I shall in future be more deliberate and carefull

Enoch Stickney having had a right of membership in our Society, thro' inattention to the principles of our profession several years ago extended his business beyond his ability to manage in the truth, whereby he became embarrassed in his circumstances & unable to pay his debts; & leaving his business in an unsettled situation he removed from us & now resides in Philadelphia: — previous to his removal, he at times gave way to the intemperate use of Spirituous liquors; since which his habits of intemperance have increased to the reproach of himself & his profession & distress of his family. —— Which circumstances have been laid before him & labours bestowed in order to produce such a sense of his transgressions as might enable him to rightly condemn & forsake them: But no evidence has appeared of his having experienced this desireable attainment & consequently his condition of mind is unsuitable to give his friends satisfaction

We therefore think it necessary to give forth a testimony against his said misconduct & have accordingly, with the approbation of our women's meeting denied him the right of membership with us untill he shall have experienced such a reformation as to forsake his transgressions & give satisfaction to friends

Whereas Benjamin Shaw lately a member of our Society, having been admitted, at his own request: And as we believe, with a knowledge of our Religious Principles, and outward regulations: Has for a considerable time conducted himself in a manner very unbecoming our profession pretending to have a greater manifestation of gospel light and more extensive charity, than has been vouchsafed, under any former dispensation, and assuming the character of a minister of the gospel; But whose outward department is very disorderly, and his language in many instances profane and obscene, even in our Religious assemblies. — His public communications have generally been confused and extravagant, tending greatly to disturb the solemnity of our ~~religious~~ meetings. — For all these improprieties he has been laboured with and admonished, as we trust in that spirit of tenderness and forbearance which the gospel inculcates without producing the desired effect, but on the contrary he appears more obstinate and determined in his delusive movements. Whereupon this meeting has, after deliberate consideration, concluded to deny the said Benjamin, the right of membership with us, and at the same time, we feel constrained, in this public manner, for the clearing of our profession, from any unjust imputation on his account, to bear our testimony against his said misconduct, until he shall be favoured to discover, that the pure and substantial Word of gospel Truth, will direct the attentive mind, out of all delusion, into a sober, rational and consistent course of conduct. That this may be his happy experience is the earnest desire of this Meeting.
